

1. The Administrative Hearing Commission is an agency of the State of Missouri created and established pursuant to §621.015, RSMo, for the purpose of conducting hearings and making findings of fact and conclusions of law in cases in which disciplinary action may be taken against a licensee or certificate holder by certain agencies, including the Missouri State Board of Registration for the Healing Arts.
2. On July 15, 2005, the Administrative Hearing Commission of the State of Missouri issued its Decision in the case of State Board of Registration for the Healing Arts v. Cynthia Bloyer, Case No. 05-0099HA. In its Decision, the Administrative Hearing Commission found that Respondent's license to practice the Healing Arts is subject to disciplinary action by this Board for violation of § 345.065.2(11), RSMo Supp. 2000.
3. This Board has received the record of the proceedings before the Administrative Hearing Commission and the Decision. The Decision issued by the Administrative Hearing Commission in Case No. 05-0099HA is incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth in this document.

4. This Board set this matter for disciplinary hearing and served notice of the disciplinary hearing upon Respondent in a proper and timely fashion.

5. Pursuant to notice and §621.110 and §334.100.2, RSMo 1994, this Board held a hearing on Friday, October 14, 2005, for the purpose of determining the appropriate disciplinary action, if any, against Respondent's license. Respondent was not present for the hearing and no one appeared on her behalf. The Board was represented by Assistant Attorney General Erwin Switzer, III. Attorney Glenn E. Bradford served as the Board's legal advisor.

6. Each member of this Board who participated in this decision certified on the record that he or she had read the Administrative Hearing Commission's Decision. All the members of this Board who were present throughout the hearing participated in the Board's deliberations, vote and order.

7. Cynthia J. Bloyer, Respondent, is licensed by the Board as an Audiologist, license number 02086. Respondent's registration is not current.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. This Board has jurisdiction over this proceeding pursuant to § 621.110, RSMo 1994.
2. Respondent's license is subject to disciplinary action by this Board pursuant to § 345.065.2(6) and (11), RSMo Supp. 2000.
